

Charter of Rights

At Unisson we believe that everyone is valued and welcome.

People with a disability have the same rights as everyone else.

At Unisson we

- respect your rights
- treat you with respect and dignity
- make sure you have access to the services you choose
- make sure you get information in a way you understand
- keep your information confidential

Respect your

- race
- culture
- religion
- sexuality
- values

We want to support you to

- make your own choices
- study or work
- find the right place to live
- speak up if something is not right with our services

We want you to feel safe.
